

GREENWOOD SCHOOL

SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

Greenwood's policy is that financial assistance is awarded within available funds on the basis of need and is non-discriminatory.

The enclosed financial statement is needed to assist in making the determination of recipients. We have attempted to make this form as simple as possible. However, if there is any additional information which you feel may aid us in our selections, please enclose an additional page with your comments. This information may take the form of obligations not evident from the requested data, or it may be additional sources of aid which you are receiving in some form. All information will be kept in strictest confidence.

The funds available for assistance are limited. It is important that we use the money where it is most needed. Please help us in our choices by divulging all pertinent data. We may find it necessary to schedule a personal conference.

Remember to:

- 1) fill out the following pages completely
- 2) submit your latest signed Federal Income tax return
- 3) submit current pay stubs
- 4) sign the application

No application will be processed without the supporting tax return and supporting pay stubs.
